

Senior English

We will be studying A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams. Please purchase a copy of the play. The ISBN number is 978-0811216029. If you cannot purchase a book due to financial need, please contact Mrs. Mirkinson.

You will take a Did-You-Read-It? test during the second week of school, and you will be allowed to use your books. Please keep in mind that you may not use an electronic copy of the book for this test.

While you are reading, highlight and annotate the text. Pay particular attention to Williams's stage directions. Additionally, focus on the character of Blanche Dubois and her development throughout the course of the play. What motivates her? What led her to become the woman she has become? To what degree is she responsible for her current situation? Why are Blanche and Stanley constantly at odds with each other?

Senior Biology

Complete the notes packet for the Anatomy and Physiology unit. Packets available in the IB office or on the IB website: rutherfordib.webplus.net

Film II Students

Please watch and make notes on the two films that you chose for your comparative study. Email me by the 2nd week of July to make an appointment to discuss your comparative study.

If you have any questions, please contact me via email at frasebm@bay.k12.fl.us

Senior Spanish

Read La Casa en Mango Street by Sandra Cisneros and complete ¿Comprendiste? packet. Packets available in the IB Office or on the IB website: rutherfordib.webplus.net

Senior Latin

You need to study Virgil's epic poem, The Aeneid. The entire poem has 12 chapters (which are called books).

1. Read English summaries of Chapter/Book 1-12. Here are some websites where you can read summary material:

http://people.duke.edu/~wj25/UC_Web_Site/epic/study_guide4.html

<https://people.emich.edu/jholoka/sg-verg.htm>

<https://novaonline.nvcc.edu/eli/eng251/virgilstudy.html>

<https://department.monm.edu/classics/courses/CLAS210/CourseDocuments/AENEID.htm>

2. Read all of Book 12 in English. The entire text of The Aeneid in English is available on the IB website: rutherfordib.webplus.net or Mrs. Mirkinson can email you a copy upon request. You are responsible for Book 12, but if you would like to read the entire poem, that would be swell. The translation is by Robert Fagles if you would like to purchase a hard copy. Another very readable translation of The Aeneid is by Allen Mendelbaum. Both are available on Amazon.com or you could get one locally from Books a Million. I am also attaching a summary of Book XII that you may find helpful.
3. As far as Book XII is concerned, you will have a written work and a test to complete the first week of school.
4. Finally, make sure you have all of the vocabulary in the Vocabulary list memorized! Available in the IB Office or on the IB website: rutherfordib.webplus.net